OLD BUSINESS:

EASTER EGG HUNT

Jerry and Vicky Samuelian, Mike Cappuccitti, Judy Schantz and Steve Henke participated in Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday. Mike and Judy thought that there were more children participating this year. There were no children in the age category of 8 years and up in the coloring contest so no prizes were awarded. Jerry suggested that we might have different items in the eggs instead of 300 of the same things. One suggestion candy, another was a nickel in some of the eggs. Roxanne will take that into consideration for next year. Many supplies have already been bought for next year. Age groups are 1-5, 6-8 and 9 and up.

PICNIC PAVILIONS

Sites for each pavilion have been chosen and marked off. There is an estimated additional cost of $350.00 per pavilion for permits and sign off by an architect. Pavilion in Blue Mountain Park is scheduled to be done first for the picnic on July 23rd.

PICNIC

Roxanne will call about getting contract for Rock Wall and Recreation Station.

Jerry gave some written suggestions for Newsletter to Dee.

NEW BUSINESS:

MAINTENANCE

We have a volunteer that will tighten up toys in all our parks, paint signs and stain, paint toys and will do whatever else needs to be done. One suggestion is staining the wood on the pavilions. His name is Robert.

NEWSLETTER

Dee will send a newsletter out with corrected Picnic date, Garage Sale dates and Annual Meeting Information.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:03PM.

Next meeting will be Tuesday, May 17th at 7:00PM at the Township Building.

Respectfully submitted, Roxanne Henke
